What does the fund invest in?

The fund will generally purchase a diversified portfolio of investment grade fixed income securities, which are issued or guaranteed by Canadian or foreign governments or their agencies or instrumentalities, other Canadian or foreign issuers, and supranational organizations. These fixed income securities may include commercial paper, repurchase agreements, bank obligations and corporate debt obligations. The Sub-Advisor will typically enter into transactions intended to hedge the foreign currency risk of these fixed income investments. Dimensional Fund Advisors LP, the Principal Sub-Advisor to the fund, does not rely on interest rate forecasting or market timing in making investments. In constructing an investment portfolio, the sub-advisor identifies a broadly diversified universe of eligible securities with precisely defined maturity ranges and credit quality characteristics.

Under normal circumstances, when determining its duration, the fund will consider a duration similar to its benchmark index which is currently the Barclays Global Aggregate Bond Index (Hedged to CAD).

How risky is it?

The value of the fund can go down as well as up. You could lose money.

One way to gauge risk is to look at how much the fund's returns change over time. This is called "volatility".

In general, funds with higher volatility will have returns that change more over time. They typically have a greater chance of losing money and may have a greater chance of higher returns. Funds with lower volatility tend to have returns that change less over time. They typically have lower returns and may have a lower chance of losing money.

Risk rating

Dimensional Fund Advisors Canada ULC has rated this fund's risk as low.

This rating is based on how much the fund's returns have changed from year to year. It doesn't tell you how volatile the fund will be in the future. The rating can change over time. A fund with a low risk rating can still lose money.

For more information about the risk rating and specific risks that can affect the fund's returns, see the What are the risks of investing in a mutual fund? section of the fund's simplified prospectus.

No guarantees

Like most mutual funds, this fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the amount of money you invest.

How has the fund performed?

This section tells you how this class of the fund has performed over the past 7 years. Returns are after expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the returns of the class.

Year by Year returns

This chart shows how this class of the fund performed in the past 7 years. The class dropped in value in 1 of the 7 years shown.

The range of returns and change from year to year can help you assess how risky the fund has been in the past. It does not tell you how the fund will perform in the future.

DFA Global Investment Grade Fixed Income Fund, Class I

Best and worst 3-month returns

This table shows the best and worst returns for the units of the fund in a 3-month period over the past 7 years. The best and worst 3-month returns could be higher or lower in the future. Consider how much of a loss you could afford to take in a short period of time.

	Return	3 months ending	If you invested $1,000 at the beginning of the period
Best return	5.12%	January 31, 2015	Your investment would rise to $1,051.23.
Worst return	-3.94%	November 30, 2016	Your investment would drop to $960.56.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in this class of the fund since its inception would have $1,447.65 as of April 30, 2017. This works out to an annual compound return of 5.00%.

Who is this fund for?

This fund is appropriate, as part of a diversified portfolio, for investors seeking exposure to a diversified portfolio of Canadian and foreign government and corporate debt securities with an investment grade credit rating. It would be suitable, therefore, for investors with a low tolerance for risk and a medium to long-term investment time horizon.

This fund is not appropriate for investors seeking a portfolio of equity securities or debt securities without an investment grade credit rating.

A word about tax

In general, you pay tax on your share of the fund's earnings and on taxable capital gains and losses you realize from redeeming your investment. The amount of tax depends on the tax rates that apply to you, and the type of earnings realized by the fund (e.g. interest, dividends, capital gains, etc.). In general, registered retirement savings plans and other registered plans do not pay tax on investments; however, tax may be payable when money is withdrawn from the registered plan (other than from a tax-free savings account).

Keep in mind that if you hold your fund in a non-registered account, fund distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you get them in cash or have them reinvested.

If you hold your investment outside of a registered plan, we will send you a tax slip that shows your share of the fund's earnings. You must calculate your taxable capital gains and losses realized on redemption.

How much does it cost?

The following tables show the fees and expenses you could pay to buy, own and sell units of this class of the fund. The fees and expenses – including any commissions – can vary among the classes of the fund and among funds. Higher commissions can influence representatives to recommend one investment over another. Ask about other funds and investments that may be suitable for you at a lower cost.

1. Sales charges

The fund does not impose a sales charge. Your representative or representative's firm may charge you a sales charge, commission or service fee. These charges are negotiated between you and your representative or representative's firm.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the returns of this class.

The fund's expenses for Class I units are made up of operating expenses and trading costs. No management fees are charged to the fund with respect to the Class I units. Instead, each Class I investor negotiates a separate fee that is paid directly to Dimensional Fund Advisors Canada ULC.

As of December 31, 2016, the expenses of this class were 0.04% of its value. This equals $0.40 for every $1,000 invested.

More about the trailing commission

Dimensional Fund Advisors Canada ULC does not pay your representative's firm a trailing commission for this class of units you own of the fund.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you buy, hold, sell or switch units of the fund.

Fee	What you pay
Class I Fee	Each Class I investor negotiates a separate fee that is paid directly to Dimensional Fund Advisors Canada ULC. The maximum annual management fee for Class I units will not exceed the annual management fee for Class A units of the same fund, which is currently 1.25%. As at June 28, 2017, no investor in Class I units for the fund pays a fee that exceeds the management fee paid in respect of Class F units for the fund.
Short-term trading fee	In order to protect unitholders from the costs associated with investors moving quickly in and out of the fund, we may put in place a short-term trading fee of up to 2% of the value of your units if you switch or redeem units within 60 days of buying units of the fund. This fee will go to the fund.
Switch fee	As described above, you may be charged a short-term trading fee of up to 2% of the value of your units if you switch or redeem units within 60 days of buying units of the fund. This fee goes to the fund.
Redemption fee	As described above, you may be charged a short-term trading fee of up to 2% of the value of your units if you switch or redeem units within 60 days of buying units of the fund. This fee goes to the fund.

What if I change my mind?

Under securities law in some provinces and territories, you have the right to:

- withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days after you receive a simplified prospectus or Fund Facts document, or
- cancel your purchase within 48 hours after you receive confirmation of the purchase.

In some provinces and territories, you also have the right to cancel a purchase, or in some jurisdictions, claim damages, if the simplified prospectus, annual information form, Fund Facts document or financial statements contain a misrepresentation. You must act within the time limit set by the securities law in your province or territory.

For more information, see the securities law of your province or territory or ask a lawyer.
